

SUBJECT NO: 135

Sub: Works - Engg. - VUDA - Providing Air conditioning to Dr Rao Gopal Rao, Kalyanamadapam / Indoor Auditorium, Anakapalli - Draft subject placed before VUDA Board for perusal and approval - Reg.

AGENDA NOTE:

VUDA has constructed an open Air Auditorium in an extent of Ac.1.46 Cts. in the land belongs to Municipality at Anakapalli during the year 1999 since there is no such facility in Anakapalli Town. It was named as Dr.Rao Gopala Rao Auditorium subsequently. This Auditorium was constructed with level difference according to ground feasibility so that the space underneath the gallery can be utilized as Kalyanamandapam for performing marriages and other functions.

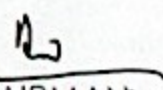

This is the only facility available both as Auditorium and Kalyanamandapam for conduct of various functions, meetings and cultural programmes in Anakapalli Town. Keeping in view of the demand and frequent occupancy of this venue, peoples representative and other organizations have requested to make the Indoor premises fully Air Conditioned with necessary false ceiling since there is lot of demand for Air Conditioned Auditorium and Kalyanamandapam in Anakapalli town. It is also stated that many organizations and institutions are requesting for providing Air Conditioning to the premises as much inconvenience is being caused during day time and in summer season.

Taking in to consideration the above aspects VUDA proposes to provide Air conditioning along with false ceiling, wall panelling, internal & external electrification for Dr.Rao Goopal Rao Auditorium indoor premises.

The total project cost is estimated to Rs.76.00 Lakhs for Air Conditioning false ceiling and Electrification works.

Hence the matter is placed before VUDA Board for perusal and approval for taking up providing Air Conditioning to Dr Rao Gopal Rao Auditorium, Anakapalli. With a Project cost of Rs.76.00 Lakhs.
