The Commissioner of Police, Visakhapatnam city and Chairman of the Advisory Committee, Officers Club, visakhapatnam in his letter dt 15.03.2008 has informed that during the rainy season lay courts are not fit resuming play at short notices and hence it has been decided in the board meeting to set up a synthetic court in the club premises in the available space. He has further informed that the cost of setting up the court is approximately Rs. 10.00 Lakhs and different agencies came forward to assist in setting up of such synthetic tennis court and they are still in need of substantial financial assistance to the tune of Rs. 3.00 Lakhs and requested to consider extending financial assistance to the tune of Rs. 3,81,900/- for base surface preparation of tennis court in the premises of the officer club.

In view of the request of the Chairman, Advising Committee, Officer's Club, Visakhapatnam the then Vice Chairman has been pleased and sanctioned an amount of Rs. 3.81 Lakhs towards financial assistance for setting up of synthetic tennis court in the premises of Officers Club, Pandurangapuram.

Hence the matter is placed before the VUDA Board for perusal and ratification of the action taken by the Vice Chairman.
